

The Helping Hand

Words from the Editor

September 23rd, 2018

 “Turn out the lights the party’s over, They say that all good things must end, and October starts a whole new year again. It’s the end of the tracks and the caboose has passed by.”

What an awesome year this has been. Thank you everyone for your submissions and your patience. So here goes the final newsletter I’ve had the privilege to submit.

The Optimist Club of Gresham is starting out strong with contacts in the Chamber of Commerce, The Mayor’s Office, and the City Council in order to help find volunteers for youth and community projects. We hope to follow the lead of the Lebanon Club.

The Albany Club has had some cool stuff going this month, such as, on September 25th Hillary Kirk and Celeste Kandle will be speaking on Ophelia’s House, make your plans to attend, also on the 25th will be the Hawaii ticket drawing, hope you have yours.

Also on the 29th in Lebanon (at Cheadle Lake) The ABC House Pumpkin Run.

The Optimist Club of Hillsboro had their Optimist Open at Forest Hills on the 21st excited to hear who won.

The Oregon International Air Show will be the 28th and 29th of Sept. at Hillsboro Airport so "Go Watch Em"

Larry Blackburn Chairman of the Caldwell Library Board was named Trustee of the Year. Larry is also highly regarded in the Caldwell Optimist Club. Gobs of Congratulations Larry.

Make sure everyone, that you get your Club Pride report in by Sept. 30. It is really important.

Children: You spend the first 2 years of their life teaching them to walk and talk. Then you spend the next 16 years telling them to sit down and shut up

The Helping Hand

I recently sold my vacuum cleaner, as all it was doing was gathering dust.

The 4 most beautiful words in the English language. I Told You So

Well Boys and Girls “That’s the name of that tune” see you at 1st quarter. Thanks again
